Utkal Diwas Celebration

1st April 2025

On 1st April 2025, the students and staff of St. Xavier's High School, Dhenkanal came together to celebrate Utkal Diwas on the school premises with great enthusiasm and reverence. The day holds immense significance as it marks the formation of the state of Odisha in 1936, and serves as a tribute to the vision, resilience, and cultural legacy of the people of Odisha.

Utkal Diwas at St. Xavier's was not just a celebration—it was a heartfelt tribute to the rich cultural tapestry, language, and identity of Odisha.

New Academic Session 2025–26

April 7 to April 17

We were thrilled to welcome our students back for the new academic year! Throughout these two weeks, orientation sessions helped students get to know their new classes, teachers, and routines.

Mother's Day Celebration

May 13, 2025

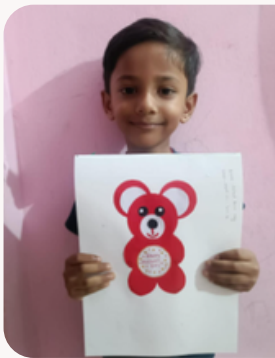

Tiny hands, big love — our Montessori students celebrated Mother's Day with charming creative expressions.

Mother's day

Montessori I – Earbud Painting Activity

Our little artists had a great time using earbuds to create beautiful paintings, promoting creativity while exploring fun, eco-friendly art techniques.

Montessori II – Mother's Day Cake-Making Activity

Students celebrated Mother's Day by decorating cakes using watermelon slices, colorful paper, and bunny designs, encouraging creativity and teamwork.

Farewell to Mrs. Rama Devi

This year's Mother's Day held special significance as we bid a heartfelt farewell to one of St. Xavier's most cherished members, Mrs. Rama Devi. A pillar of dedication and compassion, she has served the school at her best capacity. The farewell was an emotional moment, filled with gratitude and admiration for her invaluable contributions.

Montessori III – Mother's Day Card-Making Activity

Students made heartfelt greeting cards for their mothers using paper collages, expressing love and appreciation through their handmade creations.
